Legend to the Sketch of Submerine

25X1

- 1. Dock level of the submarine.
- Conning tower.
- 3. A black band with white edges from the deck level to the after part of the tower.
- 4. A dome about one or one-and-a-half neters high. The dome was completely smooth, without plate joints. The dome was narrow enough so that there was free passage on both sides of it on the deck.
- 5. A rectangular opening completely under the curve of the deck; it opened wingwards.
- 6. In the opening there was a tube or cylindrical object, the forward end of which was painted with red lead.
